

International Eucharistic Congress in Québec on 15-22 June, 2008: « The Eucharist, gift of God for the life of the world»
Program of the International Juventutem Federation (cf www.juventutem.org):

« Dear Youths [...], as a sign of your devotion to the Sacrament of the Eucharist, your Juventutem Federation has chosen as its emblem a monstrance. I also know that you will be present at the International Eucharistic Congress in Québec in June 2008 ».

Cardinal Darío Castrillón Hoyos, President of the Pontifical « Ecclesia Dei » Commission
 Vatican City, January 17, 2008.

With Juventutem, come and bear witness to the beauty and worth of the Roman traditions of the Church for the doctrine and cult of the Most Holy Eucharist!

- ✓ Lectures on the doctrine of the Eucharist by priests under the Pontifical Ecclesia Dei Commission
- ✓ Confessions, discussion and private meetings with these same priests
- ✓ Low, Solemn and Pontifical Masses, plus vespers and compline according to the forma extraordinaria of the Roman rite
- ✓ Eucharistic adoration and processions
- ✓ Convivial gatherings with youths attached to the Roman traditions of the Church : picnics, tours across Québec City

Sunday 15 : 5 th Sunday after Pentecost	Monday 16: Feria	Tuesday 17: St Gregory Barabariogo	Wednesday 18: St Ephrem	Thursday 19 : St Juliana Falconieri	Friday 20 : St Silverius, Pope & Martyr (Comm.)	Saturday 21 : St Aloysius Gonzaga, Patron saint of youths	Sunday 22 : 6 th Sunday after Pentecost
9am : Low Mass & confessions 10am : High Mass - After High Mass: picnic	9am : Low Mass & confessions	9am : Low Mass & confessions	9am : Low Mass & confessions	9am : Low Mass & confessions 10am : Solemn High Mass Drinks + Eucharistic Conference + Picnic lunch 6pm: Benediction with Cardinal : procession starts from Colisée ; calls at St François around 7:30pm (stays about 15 minutes); reaches city centre at 11pm about	9am : Low Mass & confessions 10am: Tour across Québec City Picnic lunch Tour across Québec City 5:30pm : Evening meal 7pm: organ concert 8pm : snack 8:30pm: Eucharistic conference 10pm : Parish procession with torches. Starts from St Francis Church. There a cross indicates the place where explorer Jacques Cartier landed. Cartier's crew made a procession there when affected by a fatal disease and in 1536 were miraculously cured by a medicine brought by a local Indian. Ever since, this cross has been a traditional place of devotion in Québec. In this historic location for the evangelisation of North America Pope John Paul II came to pray. 11pm : Mass with torches followed with night of adoration	8am : Reposition of the Blessed Sacrament followed with Low Mass & confessions 9:40am : rosary 10am : Pontifical High Mass with H. Exc. Bishop Léonard of Namur (Belgium); Refreshments and picnic lunch followed with Eucharistic conference 8pm : Compline , Followed with a brief spiritual conference	9am : confessions 09:30am : Rosary 10am: Solemn High Mass Picnic 2pm : Vespers and Benediction
	1pm-5pm : Juventutem booth at the Movements & Vocations Forum (open until 9pm)	1pm-5pm : Juventutem booth at the Movements & Vocations Forum (open until 9pm)	1pm-5pm : Juventutem booth at the Movements & Vocations Forum (open until 9pm)	1pm-5pm : Juventutem booth at the Movements & Vocations Forum (open until 9pm)	6:30pm-7:30pm : Adoration for the IEC : Salle Mallet

Unless else wise specified, activities take place at St François d'Assise Parish: 1381, 1^{ère} Avenue, Limoilou, Québec

CONTACT : www.fssp-quebec.com

Official Congress website : <http://www.cei2008.ca/en/> + Vatican: http://www.vatican.va/roman_curia/pont_committees/eucharist-congr/